

EDWARDS' ADVANCE PRACTICALLY SURE

House Expected Soon to Confirm Brigadier Rank.

PROMOTION PLEASURES ARMY

Hardworking Head of Bureau of Insular Affairs Has Won His Honors by Merit.

When the House takes final action within the next few days on the special bill giving Col. Clarence R. Edwards, chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, the rank of brigadier general, it will win the approval of nearly every officer of the army. The measure has already passed the Senate and has been favorably reported by the House Committee on Military Affairs, with the prospects that it will soon be passed by the lower chamber.

Secretary Taft before leaving the city the first of the week for Tuskegee, Ala., expressed gratification at the action of the House committee and hoped that the measure would be enacted before the return to the city of Colonel Edwards, who at present is at the army hospital at Fort Bayard, N. M., for his health.

Is Highly Recommended.
Both Secretary Taft and Secretary of State Root have advised Congress it is doubtful if there is a harder-working or more efficient official in all the War Department than Colonel Edwards, and many times both have recommended that Congress raise the rank of the chief of this bureau, the only bureau in the department the chief of which is not entitled to the rank of brigadier general.

In the four years the Bureau of Insular Affairs has been in existence, Col. Edwards has been head and has been compelled to face many difficult propositions in the Philippines, the Panama Canal and Porto Rico. The work grew so heavy that last fall it was found advisable to place the bureau entirely in the hands of the Insular Affairs Commission. For several months, the colonel's health has been failing and recently his physician pronounced him a victim of overwork and rushed him off to the mountains of Mexico.

During his absence Captain McIntyre, assistant chief of the bureau, has had charge of the management.

Twenty-Third Infantry.
Colonel Edwards was in the Twenty-third Infantry until the outbreak of the Spanish war. He attracted considerable attention during the war and when General Lawton went out to the Philippines, he selected Colonel Edwards as chief of staff. Edwards was then only a major, but within two years he had been promoted to lieutenant colonel. Every report made on the bureau by Mr. Root, when Secretary of War, and by Secretary Taft, has been liberal in praise of the chief and all the credit for the success of the bureau has been given to him.

ENGLISH DEALER PAYS $6,000 FOR AN ORCHID

LONDON, April 5.—A widely known horticultural dealer, Mr. Sanders, of St. Alban, has just paid $6,000 for a new and rare orchid known as the "Odonoglossum crispum patulum." The variety, which has been several times exhibited, and has twice won the gold medal at Manchester, is declared by experts to be the best ever seen. The orchid has three bulbs and its bloom is white, with a faint rose tinge. The sepals and petals are heavily blotched with red and brown and the reverse side with purple. The label has a yellow crest, marked with reddish lines, in front of which are brown spots on a white ground.

TOOK A LEADING PART IN RELIGIOUS WORK

John S. Alleman Will Be Laid to Rest in Glenwood Cemetery Tomorrow.

The funeral of John S. Alleman, who died suddenly on Tuesday evening, will be held at the family residence, 1209 S. street northwest, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. John T. Huddle and the Rev. J. C. Butler officiating. Interment will be at Glenwood.

Mr. Alleman was well known in legal and religious circles of this city, where he had resided for the past four years. Before coming to Washington, Mr. Alleman was a prominent lawyer of Harrisburg, Pa. He was born in 1855 in Selin's Grove, Pa. He was active in religious work and at the time of his death he was secretary of the local Lutheran Sunday School Union. A month ago Mr. Alleman took a leading part at the Sunday School convention of the Eastern Conference of the Maryland Lutheran Synod at Baltimore, presiding at one of the meetings and delivering an address upon Sunday school work.

He leaves a widow, Mrs. Cordelia A. Alleman, and a son, Roscoe Harold Alleman. Mrs. Alleman is a daughter of the late Rev. Samuel Dorer, D. D., pastor of St. Paul's English Lutheran church, this city.

HEFLIN IN EARNEST ON "JIM CROW" BILL

Representative Receives Many Letters
Indorsing Proposed Law
For the District.

Representative Heflin of Alabama, author of the bill to compel the street railway companies of the District to provide separate street cars for whites and blacks, an arrangement similar to the "Jim Crow" laws of the Southern States, said today he had received many letters from residents of Washington favoring the enactment of such a law by Congress.

He declared that the letters came from white people all over the District, urging him to take every step possible for the passage of the bill.

Mr. Heflin said he meant to do this. He will do his best to have the House District Committee, to which the bill was referred, take up the measure for favorable consideration.

RAY GIRL PLEADS GUILTY TO FORGERY

Admits Signing Senator Depew's Name to Check.

GIVES HER AGE AS FOURTEEN

Case Against Her Mother Not-Pressed. for Lack of Sufficient Evidence.

Elizabeth Ray, otherwise known as Elizabeth Balsh, when called to trial today before Justice Gould in Criminal Court No. 1 for forging the name of Senator Depew to a check for $50, surprised everyone by pleading guilty to the charge. She also started the court and the spectators present by stating her age to be fourteen years.

Justice Gould questioned the young woman closely in reference to her age and place of birth, but she reiterated the statement that she is not yet a month more than fourteen years old.

Elizabeth Ray is to all appearances a woman of about twenty-two or twenty-three years old. In reply to questions by Justice Gould she, however, said she was born in Boston, Mass., March 12, 1892. She also gave the name of her father and the place of the residence of her mother at the time of her birth, and the name of the family physician.

The young woman was indicted jointly with her mother, Catherine Balsh, alias Catherine Berger, for the forgery of Senator Depew's name to the check in question. The case against the Ray woman was disposed of at the suggestion of Assistant District Attorney Charles H. Turner, who was in charge of the prosecution, who said there was not sufficient evidence against the older woman to warrant her conviction. Justice Gould directed a not. pros. to be entered as to Catherine Balsh. As a result, Mrs. Balsh was discharged from custody and Elizabeth Ray was remanded to jail to await sentence.

Both women were represented by Attorney F. S. Keys.

CENTRAL LOST CLOSE GAME TO MARYLANDERS

The Maryland Agricultural College won from Central High yesterday by 4 1, in a closely contested game, played on the college diamond.

Only through the failure of Hunter, who was in left field for Central, to freeze onto a difficult fly over his head, was the home contingent able to score the winning runs. With this one exception, the Blue and White's playing was perfect.

Willis, who pitched the first seven innings for the High School, did excellent work, allowing but three hits, and only giving way to Oyster, after sustaining an injury to his thumb. Oyster also pitched a steady game, the College men getting but one hit off his delivery in two sessions. Big "Cy" McDonald, Hunter and Hampton got the only hits for High School. COMING TO THE THEATERS

National—Herbert Kelcey and Effie
Shannon in "The Lightning Conductor."

Herbert Kelcey and Effie Shannon will appear at the New National Theater Monday night in "The Lightning Conductor," a four-act comedy by Harry B. Smith.

"The Lightning Conductor" presents an automobile with all the headlights blazing, running at the rate of sixty miles an hour, through the early twilight, with every accompaniment of wind, dust and flying scenery. Of course the automobile will really remain stationary, but the wheels will revolve, the roadway appear to slip away beneath them, and the landscape will tear by at a terrific speed. Mr. Kelcey and Miss Shannon will sit in the car, with the mechanical dust and wind blowing at the rate of sixty miles an hour. Seats are now on sale.

Columbia—Lillian Blauvelt in "The Rose of the Alhambra."

The new romantic comic opera by Charles Emerson Cook and Lucius Hosmer, entitled "The Rose of the Alhambra," will be the attraction at the Columbia Theater next week. Lillian Blauvelt, the famous American soprano, has abandoned the grand opera and concert stage and entered the field of light opera. Both in this country and in Europe she has achieved fame as a singer of the very first class. The scene of the opera is laid in romantic Spain, at the time of Philip V., who was known as the "comedy monarch." The period and the locale give opportunity for exquisite staging.

Mme. Blauvelt has been surrounded by a capable cast of supporting artists.

Belasco—Henry Lee.

The management of the Belasco Theater announce a most interesting attraction especially secured to fill out the week left open by the limited engagement of "The Earl and the Girl." For Sunday night, Saturday matinee, and Sunday night, Henry Lee, "The American Actor," will present his famous entertainment entitled "Great Men—Past and Present." Mr. Lee's unique entertainment has been the talk of two continents. In his "Great Men," Mr. Lee will appear as Shakespeare, Longfellow, Tennyson, Ibsen, Kipling, King Edward VII, Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, John Paul Jones, Gen. U. S. Grant, Gen. Robert Lee, President Roosevelt, and many others.

Majestic—Edward Harrigan in "Old Lavender."

Edward Harrigan, the veteran character comedian in "Old Lavender," is offering at the Majestic Theater, commencing with Monday matinee, in the history of the stage there is no more attractive chapter than that furnished by Mr. Harrigan's plays. His galaxy of characters are drawn with rare fidelity. They are wholesome plays, their simple humor and pathos ring true.

Academy—"A Race for Life."

The attraction booked at the Academy next week is "A Race for Life." A number of new features have been added, the famous race track scene, has been made more attractive by the act of a running of three horses in a real harness, showing the start and finish of a race, and with this realistic effect "A Race for Life" is now considered one of the best melodramas that play the popular picture theater.

Chase—Ray L. Royce.

Ray L. Royce heads the excellent bill of polite vaudeville at Chase's next week. His work in vaudeville is said to be exceedingly unique and enjoyable. The Barrows-Lancaster Company in "Facts" presents a very funny act, the theme of which is woven around the meeting between a peppy old Southern colonel and an irascible Northern general. The Macarte Sisters, evolutionists on the wire, Bobby North, in a Hebrew monologue; Gallagher and Barrett, with "The Stock Broker"; La Petite Mignon, a dainty juvenile entertainer; Les Ortaneyes, European comedy acrobats; and the motion pictures complete the bill.

Lyceum—"The Dreamland Burlesquers."

The "Dreamland Burlesquers" are the program at Kernan's Lyceum next week. Two absolutely new burlesques, "At the Circus" and "Through the Clouds," will be presented in spectacular form, and in which will be introduced the entire company of comic and burlesque artists, as well as the chorus, which is on the stage in different costumes every few minutes.

BLAZE IN BIG HOTEL; GUESTS IN A PANIC

LYNN, Mass., April 5.—Fifty patrons of the Arnold House, in the Mower Block, on Union street, became panic-stricken early this morning when fire started in the building and many unable to escape through the dense smoke were rescued by firemen.

Mrs. George S. Merrill, wife of the proprietor, Mrs. Helen A. Cushing and Mrs. Forest Osgood, were overcome by smoke and had to be carried from the burning building.

Three firemen were found unconscious from escaping gas and rescued by their fellow firefighters. All the hotel patrons escaped in the scantiest attire. The Arnold House occupied the second, third, and fourth floors of the building. On the ground floor is a series of stores, all of which were damaged. The total loss is estimated at about $50,000.

PUBLIC TELEGRAPH OFFICES IN POSTOFFICE TO CLOSE

The Postal and Western Union Telegraph branch offices which have been located in the city postoffice building for the past three years and which have proved a great convenience to the public, will shortly be removed, and private wires will be installed in the office of the Postmaster General with wires direct to New York and Chicago with attachments for lengthening to other points.

Two operators have been selected, having passed a civil service examination. The offices in the Postoffice were established at the suggestion of the department the space being given from the telegraph companies furnishing the equipment and the operators. These offices did considerable business, each averaging about 500 messages a week, not including the Government telegrams.

NORTHEAST TO HAVE HANDSOME NEW ROW

Architect R. Grimm has completed plans for a row of nine three-story dwellings which Thomas H. Melton will build at 198 to 124 Third street north east, to cost about $50,000. The houses will contain ten rooms, and will be ready for occupancy in the early fall.

Danderine
GREW MISS LEWIS' HAIR AND WE CAN PROVE IT

The Great Danderine Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results

MISS Lewis' hair was very thin and it was less than two feet in length when she began using Danderine. She says her hair and scalp are now fairly teeming with new life and vigor.

That's the main secret of this great remedy's success as a hair grower. It enlivens, invigorates and fairly electrifies the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, causing unusual and unheard-of activity on the part of these two most important organs, resulting in a strenuous and continuous growth of the hair.

The following is a reproduction of Miss Lewis' last letter:

January 3, 1905.

Dear Doctor Knowlton:—
You know I told you in my first letter that my hair would not reach much below my shoulders, and that all of it together only made one tiny braid.

I am sending you my photograph, which I had taken at Stevens Bros. It tells the whole story better than I can tell it.

Everybody I know is using Danderine, so you see I am doing something to show my appreciation.

Sincerely yours, (Miss) EVA LEWIS.

Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known. It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25c bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes,
25 cents, 50 cents and $1. per bottle

FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowledge Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.
